OUR YOUNG FOLKS.

Greedy Tom.

What does Tommy think about
In the pleasant spring.—
When the willow-flowers are yellow,
And the brown bee, blundering fellow,
Buzzes in the cherry blossoms,
And the robins sing?
"Maple sugar, rhubarb pie,
Sparrow-grass, and lettuce,
Roasted veal for dinner, now,
Biddy's sure to get us!"
This, I fear is everything
Tommy thinks about in spring.
Oh, I would not like to be
Such a greedy boy as he.

MARION DOUGLASS.

DEAR EDITOR:—I have not written for a long time for your column, so I thought I would like to write again. The Children's Department is pretty well filled again. I think it is nice to read the letters of the children. My mamma belongs to the Brethren church. My oldest brother joined church this winter. We were very glad to hear of it. He is away from home teaching. He will be home in about ten months. We will all be so glad to see him. I am twelve years old. Our school will be out in two weeks. I study Reading, Writing, Arithmetic and Spelling. I will send ten cents for the College fund. Good by,

CORA D. HOSTETLER.

La Paz, Ind.

DEAR EDITOR:—I am a girl ten years old. I am going to school. My teacher's name is Mr. Chiles. I like him very much, as he is kind to us all. I am lonely so I thought I would write. Papa, mamma and two brothers belong to the Brethren church. I will close by sending you the "Spiritual Railway."

The line to heaven by Christ was made,
With heavenly truths the rails are laid.
From earth to heaven the line extends,
Repentance is the station house
Where passengers are taken in.
No fee for them is there to pay,
For Jesus is himself the way.
The Bible is the engineer,
It points the way to heaven so clear,
Through tunnels dark and dreary here
It does the way to glory steer
God's love the fire, his truth the steam
Which drives the engine and the train.
All you who would to glory ride
Must come to Christ in him abide.
In first and second and third class,
Repentance, faith and holiness,
You must the way to glory gain,
Or you with Christ can never reign.
Come then poor sinners now is the time
At any station on the line,
If you repent and turn from sin
The train will stop and take you in.

If I see this in print, I may write again. OLIVE V. COPP.

DEAR EDITOR:—I want to join Company A, so I will send ten cents for the Ashland College. Bro. Holsinger preached for us last Saturday night, Sunday morning and Sunday night. We like him very much and wish he could preach for us every Sunday. When he stopped at our house he played on the organ and sang a piece in German. We live across the street from the church. I am nine years old, and go to school every day. We have Sunday School every Sunday at two o'clock D. m. It is a Union Sunday School. This is the first time I ever wrote for a paper, so please excuse all mistakes. I have one sister and two brothers who want to join Company A. Howard, my twin brother will send his ten cents with my letter. If this letter is not too long, I will write again some time. Good by. From your little friend,

PEARLIE ROSS.

Ocoya, Ill.

DEAR EDITOR:—This is my first attempt to write for the Children's Column. I am thirteen years old. I have been going to school, but I have quit. My teacher's name was Willard Shidler. My studies were Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, Geography and Spelling. I wish to join Company A. Find enclosed ten cents. Mr. H. R. Holsinger was here and held a meeting of one week and preached very well. Mr. A. Massena is our minister this year. I will answer Zura B. Hetrick's question: Eggs is found in Job 39:14, Isa. 59:5. I will ask a question: Where is ropes found in the Bible? Yours truly,

MELVIN I. HOSTETLER.

La Paz, Ind.

DEAR EDITOR:—I will try and write a letter for the Children's Column. My brother Clarence has been sick and is not well yet. I will answer Florence S. Hang's question: Who had two dreams, what were the dreams, who interpreted them, what was meant by them? Pharaoh had two dreams. The first was, he dreamed that seven fat kine came up out of the river, and fed in a meadow and seven lean kine came up out of the river and stood on the brink of the river and the seven lean kine did eat up the seven fat kine. The second dream was that seven good rank ears of corn came up in stalk and seven ears blasted with the east wind sprung up after them, and the seven ears blasted with the east wind ate up the seven rank ears. Joseph interpreted them. They meant that there should be seven years of plenty and seven years of famine to follow. Good by,

FRANK YODER.

Falls City, Neb.

DEAR EDITOR:—I thought I would write for the Children's Column. I have not written for some time. I go to school. I like to go. My teacher's name is E. E. Maurer. We go to Sunday School. I like to go. My papa is not at home. He started for Switzerland. We get very lonesome. We got a letter from him. I wish he would soon come back. He used to live there about thirty years ago. I did not like to see him go over such a big water, but mamma said that God would take care of him.

ELLA ALLISBAUGH.

North Manchester, O.

DEAR EDITOR:—After reading quite a number of little letters in the EVANGELIST, and occasionally noticing some written by my little acquaintances, I have also decided to try and write a letter. This was the last day of school for this term. We had a term of five months, now we have a three weeks' vacation. I have two brothers, Howard and Hays, that attend school. They both drew a prize at school today, for having the most head marks. My name and my brother's names were place on the Roll of Honor for attendance and good conduct. My studies are Spelling, Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, Physiology, History and Geography. My teacher's name is Julia O. Ray. I was second best in Penmanship. This has been a mild and pleasant winter. We had but two inches of snow, and I think what made it seem so pleasant to us was because my aunt Becca from Pa. spent the winter with us. She came the latter part of Sept. She expects to return home ere long. She enjoyed her visit to sunny Kan., and likes our country and climate very much. I should like to go home with her to visit my grandpa Musser. I only have one grandpa and he lives at Berlin, Pa. This has been my first attempt to write. If this escapes the waste basket, I may write again. I will send ten cents for the College.

Your little friend,

JAKIE MEYERS.

Wilsey, Kan.

DEAR EDITOR:—This is my first attempt to write for the Children's Column. As I have not heard much from Mich., I thought I would let some of the children know about Eaton Co. My papa and mamma both belong to the Brethren church. They have about twenty miles to go to church. They do not go very often unless they go by railroad. We live about one mile west of Charlotte. We have a nice court house and splendid water works. Our folks have made ready for making maple sugar. It is fun to eat sugar, but no fun to make it. I think this is a nice way to let little children hear from all parts of the United States. The people have a toboggan in this town and have had a sad accident. One boy went to the foot of a hill and two sleds ran together and killed him instantly. The weather is favorable, but not as warm as we would like to have it. I will close by asking a question: What book of the Bible has not the word God in it? If I see this in print, I will write again.

NETTIE PIFER.

Charlotte, Mich.

DEAR EDITOR:—This is my second attempt to write for your paper. I go to school every day that I can. My teacher's name is Frank Redfern. I like him very much. My studies are Spelling, Reading, Writing and Arithmetic. Uncle Jacob Rittgers was down and preached two sermons and the folks would like to have him back again. I wish to become a member of Company A. I love to read the little letters in the EVANGELIST. Good by,

JENNIE IMBODEN.

Haynes, Ohio.

DEAR EDITOR:—As I have not written for the paper for a long time, I thought I would write again. I am ten years old. I go to school. My teacher's name is Alice Van Buskirk. I study Arithmetic, Reading, Writing, Grammar, Geography and Spelling. We have preaching every two weeks at Fairview chapel by Rev. I. N. Miller. We will have protracted meeting at Fairview chapel commencing tomorrow evening by Rev. J. H. Worst. We will organize our S. S. next Sunday at Mt. Pleasant chapel. I will close by asking a question: What were the plagues sent unto the Egyptian's because Pharoah would not let the children of Israel go out of Egypt? If I see this in print, I may write again.

GEORGE C. CARPENTER.

DEAR EDITOR:—This is my first attempt to write for the Children's Column. I am seven years old. I go to school. My teacher's name is Miss Alice Van Buskirk. My studies are Reading, Arithmetic, Spelling and Writing. My papa and mamma belong to the Brethren church. I like to go to meeting and Sunday School. I will close by asking a question: Where is the word rave found in the Bible. I will answer Zura B. Hetrick's question. Where is eggs mentioned in the Bible? It is found in Deut. 22:6. Good by,

EDITH C. CARPENTER.

DEAR EDITOR:—This is my first attempt to write for the Children's Column. I read some of the letters in the EVANGELIST. I am going to school. My studies are Spelling, Reading, Writing and Arithmetic. My teacher's name is John McCauley. My papa and mamma belong to the Brethren church. Our minister's name is J. B. Wampler. We had a meeting at Mahoning Furnace. It was bad weather and the minister was troubled with with neuralgia that we did not continue the meeting. The last night he was not able to go to the church. Some were disappointed in not hearing him preach. I will close by answering Zura B. Hetrick's question: Where is eggs mentioned in the Bible? It is found in Deut. 22:6 and Jer. 17:11.

Slamming Doors.

One of the rudest habits of ill-bred and thoughtless persons is that of slamming doors. Once I called with a friend upon a sick person whose nerves had become so painfully acute through suffering that all noise tortured her. A screen door opened from her room into the hall, and as callers and members of the family passed in or out, a quick, sharp slam followed close on their egress and ingress. The torture of the noise sent a spasm of pain across the sick woman's face, but she bore it uncomplainingly thinking it more endurable than flies and mosquitoes; and no one had noticed or thought to lessen this annoyance, until my friend's kind heart and quick eye prompted and planned a remedy. She called for tacks and cotton-batting, and making firm little cushions of the batting she tacked them up and down the casing where the door would strike, and the sharp slam bang was instantly softened as the door swung to. The grateful language and glance of the sick woman made me wish that I, too, had eyes that could see ways to be helpful toward others.

Don't slam the doors; we have heard it called "wooden swearing."—SEL.

Children are either a joy and comfort to their parents, or a burden upon their hearts. How careful children should be lest the hearts of those who love them best and have done and endeavored so much for them.—SEL.
